SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

The rally at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday was a grand success. Sixty-one dollars was raised. Three prizes were awarded. Rev. Rogers, pastor of the M. E. Church, is preparing to go to conference. Prof. Raleigh A. Scott, of Chesterfield, England, preached and sang at the First Baptist Church at 11 a. m. at the A. M. E. Church at 3 p. m. and at Mt. Zion Church at 7:30 p. m. He is one of the most fitted men of the day. Prof. Waters is in town with his moving picture exhibition. Miss Ada Alexander and Mrs. Joseph Greer entertained on Monday at noon with an elegant dinner of three courses, in honor of Miss Jennie B. Paskett, of Nashville, Miss Ollie Seales, of Nashville, and Mrs. Lucy Greer, of Chattanooga. Covers were laid for ten there being present with the hostess and honorees Mrs. Geo. Crowell, Mrs. Mandy Gordon, Mrs. Anna Sparrow, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Emma Buchanan and Mrs. C. A. Jennings. Quite an enjoyable time was spent by every one present. Miss Elaine Nixon entertained at her home Sunday evening. Misses Nannie Thompson and Jennie M. Dickey. Every one is in a rush attending the opening of Turner Normal. They enrolled 30 students Saturday evening.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

Rev. F. Bell, of the First Baptist Church, filled his pulpit last Sunday, after having spent the week at Whitlock, Tenn., in revival services with Rev. Lawrence. He left Monday to be with the Rev. another week. Mr. and Mrs. Proby, Sr., gave six o'clock dinner for Rev. James Ridley Sunday. Those who were seated at the table were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, Mr. Richard Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Proby. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Childress have returned from Nashville after having spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Neal, and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Brown. The Holy Saints are holding their tent meeting at this place. The stork has again visited Mr. and Mrs. James Buford, leaving behind him another girl. Mrs. Anna Ross entertained the Bible Band last Sunday afternoon. They had a splendid meeting. Mrs. Anna Butler was with Mrs. Officer last week. The Murfreesboro Magnolia Band played at the State Fair last week. They were highly praised. It will be remembered that this band is yet in its youth, and Murfreesboro is proud of them. A large number of Murfreesborians visited the State Fair last week. Miss Florence Kirk, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

WINCHESTER NOTES.

Rev. Pleasant preached a very interesting sermon at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday night. Miss Katie Mann returned Saturday from Mt. Eagle. Mr. Hurley Trigg and wife, of Chattanooga, are visiting her mother this week. Little Charlie Gray, who has been very sick, is up again. Mr. and Mrs. Prothro have returned home from Bridgeport. Mr. Howard Mann is sick. Miss Elizabeth Dartis, who has been sick for some time, is better. Miss Margaret Ransom, of Bridgeport, who has been visiting here left for Nashville last Thursday. Mr. Andrew Gilbreath returned home last week, bringing with him his new wife. We wish them much success on their new voyage. Miss Nellie Gray will leave Wednesday for Tullahoma to spend a few days. Mrs. Lucy Rutledge and Mrs. Sallie Gray have returned from Nashville, where they have been visiting Mrs. Arthur Townsend. Miss Ethel Gray left last Tuesday for Nashville, where she will attend school at Roger Williams. Mr. Doc Stamps, of St. Louis, is visiting his parents this week.

WEST NASHVILLE NOTES.

Rev. Henry Roland, of 607 Thirtieth avenue, is at home suffering from internal injuries received a few days ago. Rev. D. J. Mitchell, C. G. M., of Franklin, Tenn., installed the officers of Rock City Progressive Tabernacle No. 12, Greater Nashville Temple No. 14, at Clifton Hall, Tuesday night, September 26th, after which he spoke on various subjects, though for the benefit of the organization and the bereavement of Mrs. Roland, V. G. P. concerning the accident that befell her husband in the afternoon on the account of whose illness Rev. J. H. Kerr was installed in his stead as C. M. and Mr. R. L. King, as C. R. Tabernacle officers: Mrs. Mollie Roland, H. P. Georgia Carter, V. P., Allie W. Peeden, C. R., Madora Galaway, Chair. of B of V. Mr. Anderson Cross, of Union City, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jones and other relatives. Mrs. Mary Joyner, of 5112 Louisiana avenue, is visiting in Springfield. While here she will attend the Fair. The pastor, Rev. I. Sherran, is having quite a success in his revival. Rev. J. H. Kerr, pastor of St. Luke A. M. E. Church, gave quite a successful rally Sunday, making preparation for conference and will soon begin revival. Mrs. Willie Williamson, of Fortieth avenue, is very sick.

LEITCHFIELD (KY.) NOTES.

Mrs. Ida Willis and Mrs. Mary Cunningham entertained at dinner. Mrs. R. Tapp and the Rev. I. W. Florer and wife. The public schools are moving on nicely under the auspices of Miss Lou Willis and Mrs. L. W. Florer. Mrs. Maggie Willis has returned home from Memphis, after visiting her sister. Miss Katie Rhodes is visiting at Lacknon. Mrs. Maggie Slaughter left the city for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Pope is arranging for a musical concert at the M. E. Church. The funeral of Mrs. Rosetta Boon was attended last week. Mr. Andrew Boon, of Peoria, Ill., paid a short trip to his mother, accompanied by his little son. His mother is now over one hundred years old. He has been absent for over twenty years. They enjoyed a lovely family dinner.

PULASKI NOTES.

Mr. John Rannon, formerly of Fayetteville, Tenn., but recently of Seattle, Wash., is in the city spending a few days with his sister. Mrs. H. L. P. Jones, wife of the presiding elder of the Shelbyville District of the A. M. E. Church. Mr. W. G. Owens, the son of Mr. Matt Owens, gave a recital at the A. M. E. Church here Monday night. Mr. Owens is a Giles county boy, who left here some years ago and took a course in Columbia University, of South Carolina, and has made good in his profession. Misses Leanna Reynolds, Robert Lee Jones and Georgia Malone, daughters of Mr. N. N. Reynolds, Rev. H. L. P. Jones and Mr. Fuqua all left Monday for Turner Normal School, at Shelbyville, Tenn., where they are to enter school this session. The many friends of the young ladies wish them much success in their studies. The District school opened last Monday, October 2, in the new school house on the Cornersville pike, just out from the corporate limits, with Prof. J. T. Bridgeforth and H. H. Thompson principal and assistant. They opened with a large enrollment with bright prospects of a successful session. We have been informed that the senior class has an enrollment of about ten. Rev. S. L. McGee is pushing matters relative to his conference, which is to be here soon. Rev. G. R. Norman, the popular pastor of the A. M. E. Church, is calling for his dollar money with all the force at his command, among his members and friends. Rev. A. J. James (Big Daddy) was in town Sunday and preached to quite a crowd at his church and received nearly $24 as collection. Rev. James is a successful pastor and Mt. Zion Baptist Church is proud of him. He knows how to raise money and how to dispose of it in a way to stimulate and set an example for those of our race who admire a good and useful citizen in a community. The members of Beulah Baptist Church have not quit praising the most eloquent sermon preached to them by Dr. Foust (white) a few nights ago. Mrs. M. A. Turner, who went to Nashville and entered her daughter, Mamie, and her sister, Josephine Bramlette, in school at Roger Williams University, has returned home again. The young women are well pleased with the school and they anticipate better things for the future. Mr. James McGoode, of Nashville, Tenn., visited this city a few days this week. While in town he was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. T. P. Turner. Mr. McGoode formerly lived here and just came down to visit his father and relatives, both in the country and here in town. He was delighted at his short stay here, and thinks his friends here are progressing nicely. Little Flournoy Meredith, who has been sick several weeks, is much better. Mrs. Lizzie Maxwell is able to be out again after several weeks' illness. Mrs. Esther Bryant's sister, Mary, who lives in Birmingham, was here a few days visiting her mother, Mrs. Josie Jennings, who has been real sick. Mr. Gilbert Jennings, who has been sick with fever, is much better. Mr. Sam Black, the brother of Mr. C. T. Black, the merchant, left for his home in Dallas, Tex., last Monday.

BUFORD NOTES.

The eating off the leaves from the cotton by the caterpillars has caused the cotton to open much earlier than usual, and most of the rural schools have been compelled to close to answer the call of the cotton field. Some say there will be a shortage in cotton, as the caterpillar destroyed the young bolls; others say the bolls would not have matured anyway, as the first frost would have impeded them. There was an entertainment recently given by the teacher, Mrs. M. K. Buford, and the pupils of Blue Creek School for the benefit of the school. This school will re-open as soon as cotton gathering is over. Quite a number of persons from this vicinity attended the County Fair, at Pulaski. Many expressed themselves as thinking the fair was better in every respect than heretofore. Mrs. M. K. Buford and Miss Bessie T. Rose were the guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. Lou Ellex Hobbart Friday, at the Fair. Miss M. F. Martin is preparing to enter school at Pulaski soon. Mr. Guss Cox, father of Mr. Audie Cox, has bought the Wilson farm, near Lynnville. He also recently bought a pair of horses. The two brothers, Tom and Guss Cox, are both prosperous farmers, owning fine horses, cattle and over two hundred acres of land. Mr. Isaiah Rhodes, of Mooresville, Marshall County, visited his sisters, Mrs. Willis Martin, of this place, and Miss Cornelia, of Wales, recently. Mr. Hesikiah Bills is repairing and changing bachelor's hall into a real residence, and he and his bride, Mrs. Flossie (Davis) Bills, are housekeeping. Rev. Cooper is to be seen right often since conference is so near.
